A Pretty Shoe

The HAT is the Crowning Beauty

Our Buell's Shoes,

On Saturday, April 2, 1892,

Having now a convenient, commodious and well arranged house for business, with the advantage of this central location, we feel assured that we can offer to the people of this Green River Country advantages even superior to what we have done in the past.

Our talking man, being a very modest man, does not propose to say that we are the "hustlingest" merchants in the world, but he instructs us to say in this announcement that we are giving to this business all the TIME, MUSCLE, MONEY and BRAIN at our command, and if these avail anything in these jostling railroad times, the people shall have the advantage of it. There is no mistake about the proposition, it takes ALL these to make this business profitable to both Merchant and People, and we propose to use Muscle and Brain particularly, instead of "gall" and "brass."

The people want a General Market-a trading point where they can dispose of their merchantable Produce at good prices and where they can buy anything they want, either for common consumption or for the finer and more elegant supplies, at fair prices. If we can offer these, we can expect the trade; if not, we cannot hope for it. The people read the newspapers and are fully up with the times, and for this reason we appear in the papers; only, however, when we think we have something to say-something that will interest the people.

In this Opening Announcement we make no "Cheap John" promises. We have no faith in this sort of advertising. We want the people to know who we are, where we are, the business we are in, the opportunities we have, and then to understand that we extend a cordial invitation to one and all to "Come to see us;" the rest we leave with them. Thankful for past patronage, we remain Truly,
